

Queensland Women's Week 2017

Be involved. Lead the way.

Supported by YWCA Queensland and the Queensland Government.

Our Oakleigh State School P & C, as a result of a successful grant application, are excited to host:

A Week of Inspiration and Empowerment

Drone Day with Dr Catherine Ball

Monday 6 March

*"Leaders light a fire within people."
Dr Catherine Ball*

Leadership Panel for Students

Tuesday 7 March

Leadership Panel for Parents

Thursday 9 March

9am - 1pm: Sessions for Yrs 2-6

2.15pm: Whole School
Assembly

3.15pm Yr 6 female students and their parents - a special
afternoon tea and chat
with Catherine about career pathways.

Includes light catering

Eventbrite bookings
<http://bit.ly/2kdcOGe>

9am

Yr 5 and 6 students are invited to a panel discussion on women in leadership and
STEM

Class Event
We invite parents who are women in leadership
to approach classroom teachers to arrange a 5
minute chat to the children about your role at some time this week.

Venue : Oakleigh State School, Buxton Street,
Ashgrove

7pm

Our parents are invited to hear from a panel of women leaders who will provide inspiring messages about how we can support our girls to be leaders.

Includes light catering

Eventbrite bookings
<http://bit.ly/2kdcOGe>

A Week of Inspiration and Empowerment

Dr Catherine Ball

Catherine is a global pioneer in the drone industry. She is a scientist, humanitarian, business woman, innovator and entrepreneur. She was recognised as the Telstra Businesswoman of the Year in 2015 and as an AFR Boss Magazine Young Executive of the Year.

Dr Catherine will be with us on Monday 6 March.

Panel Members

Emily Biswell

parent

Senior HR Business Partner - Mastercard

Currently supporting the Processing businesses across Australia and New Zealand based out of Brisbane.

She is really excited to be bringing the signature STEM initiative, Girls 4 Tech to Brisbane and to be launching it with Oakleigh State School.

Both panels

Carolyn Snow

parent

Partner, Corporate and Financial Services, Russells

Vice President, National Council of Women of Queensland

Parent Panel

Megan Houghton

parent

Executive General Manager, Energy Solution.

Previously Director-General for the Department of Tourism, Major Events, Small Business and the Commonwealth Games with the Queensland Government

Megan is a member of Chief Executive Women, was 2010 Telstra Queensland Business Woman of the Year and has been named as an Australian Financial Review 100 Women of Influence.

Both panels

Kellie-Anne Robinson

Community link

Chief Operating Officer of Obzerv, a technology start-up in field service and data collection.

Obzerv is focussed on disrupting the field service management market and using technology to support field workers whilst also delivering significant efficiency and risk-reduction benefits to their organisation. She's particularly passionate about how in her role as a business leader she can contribute, influence and invest in ensuring our communities are adapting in the changing world.

Student Panel

Jane Morgan

Grandma

Executive Coach and Developer of Leaders

Jane was active in the feminist movement when her daughter was a baby in the 1970s working to give all women, especially girls, equal opportunity.

She has a particular passion to equip women find their own voice as leaders.

Student Panel

Anne Ozdowska

parent

PhD Candidate - QUT Human Computer Interaction (Video Games)

When Anne started her IT degree in 1998, she was one of four girls out of 400.

She is keen to talk about the importance of mothers modelling education and technology.

Parent Panel

Chloe Mudie

parent

Senior Scientist in the Department of Immunology, Pathology, QLD.

Chloe studied a Bachelor of Biomedical Science and now works diagnosing many diseases and disorders including lymphoma, leukaemia, immune function diseases and autoimmune diseases.

Student Panel

Susan Monro

parent

Program Manager, NDIS at the Mental Illness Fellowship QLD.

Susan brings her mix of technical and interpersonal skills to facilitate solutions to manage change and bring lasting business improvements.

In her current role, she is leading business transformation initiatives.

Parent Panel

Emily DeLa Pena

Community link

Founder of CodingKids

Before Coding Kids Emily was as a civil engineer working on transport infrastructure planning, Manager in TransLink, a division within, Transport and Main Roads, teaching English to adults and children in Germany, digital marketing and community engagement with Gifts4Good, a social enterprise startup, and volunteering for CoderDojo.

Both panels

Venue : Oakleigh State School, Buxton Street, Ashgrove